

Swansea, MA

The Best of Times proudly presents “Forever Irish” starring Andy Cooney. Direct from his SOLD OUT performance at Carnegie Hall to our stage, Andy Cooney with his outstanding voice and dynamic stage presence has always been a favorite among American and Irish audiences everywhere. His talent and versatility provide the ability to deliver a song directly to the hearts of his audience. Being christened “Irish America’s Favorite Son” by The New YorkTimes, is a title he truly deserves. Andy and his guests will entertain us with a celebration of happiness that makes memories last forever.

MARCH

Sudbury, MA

Join us as we head to a national historic landmark that has been in business for more than two centuries. Longfellow's Wayside Inn is proud to be the oldest operating Inn in the country, offering comfort and hospitality to travelers along the Boston Post Road since 1716. After lunch we will be entertained by Newton musical trio Rhythm and Pearls. This amazing group will be singing great harmonies from the 1940s and each following decade, spiced with toe-tapping dance moves. If you enjoyed past trip “Sister’s of Swing” you will love Rhythm and Pearls! Some quick sightseeing and a stop at the local country store will complete our day.

APRIL

Marshfield & Plymouth, MA

Today we will enjoy the charming New England atmosphere of the south shore. Offering summer respites by the sea and leisurely year-round dining, the beautifully restored Fairview Inn is a quaint Victorian originally built in 1874. The restaurant offers a "from-scratch" American menu and expansive ocean views. After lunch we will explore the historic waters of nearby Plymouth Harbor aboard the Pilgrim Belle, an authentic Mississippi style paddlewheeler! This 75-minute cruise will highlight the story of the Pilgrims and maritime lore.
